8. Accountability

Our application is not 'normal.'

We ask questions that will help us learn more about who you are rather than what you've done. Please take your time to consider your answers as they pertain to your possible employment at LaDIFF.

We look forward to reading about you and getting to know you better.

ENTHUSIASM - Enthusiasm, passion, and fun make life more interesting. Enjoying what you do makes work more enjoyable and rewarding. What are you passionate about?

LEARNING & GROWTH - Education does not stop at school. How have you continued to 'learn'?

RESPECT & INTEGRITY - LaDIFF values our relationships with customers, vendors, staff, and friends. Mutual respect and integrity in the workplace has allowed us to form a reputation of honesty. Please give examples of how you have demonstrated respect & integrity in your working life?

PROBLEM SOLVER - You can't sit by the side lines to affect change. Constructive contributions from all involved are critical to making progress. How have you contributed to positive change in an organization?

TEAMWORK - No one person is responsible for our success as a store. Tell us how you have helped someone else be successful.

JUST A FEW MORE QUESTIONS!

Please tell us about any education you've had relevant to your career interests.

Please tell us about any retail work experience you have. If you have never worked in retail, you've been a consumer... if that is the case, tell us why you want to work in retail now. _____

We are a retail store, which means that Saturdays & Sundays are our most important days to interact with customers. Are you available to work weekends? _____

If you are applying for a position that involves driving a store vehicle, please tell us about your driving record
Note: Anything that affects YOUR insurance would affect ours as well - please attach YOUR driving record

Often we seek referrals from our current staff and/or our customers.
